ECONOMIC SYSTEM TO BLAME

That So Many People Need Hospital Treatment is a Result of Unwise Ordering of Things.

We are very proud of our hospitals, but we must not be blind to their shortcomings. Nor must we be blind to the fact that there are altogether too many people in hospitals.
That, of course, is largely due to our bad economic and industrial systems. Bad housing, preventable occupational diseases, alcoholism and many other opprobria of the present social order account for many of our sins against the laws of health. The hospital itself often falls short with respect to the care of venereal cases, the insanities, decent privacy, the social service spirit, the spirit of charity, in the case of those for whom the hospital receives no pay from the city or relatives, the segregation of children before admission to the wards until the incubation periods of the infectious diseases are passed, the care of contagious cases when they do develop, considerate and humane reception and tactful, kindly and private interrogation of applicants, the character and pay of orderly service, and on many other counts. Really we are still in the dark ages with respect to the hospital. But every year sees a nearer approach to what should be, and the ideals are not lost sight of by anyone.—Medical Times.

FICKLE SUMMER MAID

Howe—Man at the seashore discovered diamonds in the surf. Did you ever discover any jewels when you were there?

Wise—I thought I discovered a jewel last summer, but after she jilted me I came to the conclusion that she was only an imitation.

A FAIR AVERAGE.

"Does your wife believe all you tell her?"

"No; but we have an amicable working basis. She accepts about 60 per cent of it at par."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

SEEING AMERICA THIRST.

"The distillery was burned to the ground."

"Didn't they save anything?"
"Yes; they snatched a few brands from the burning."—Philadelphia Enquirer.

REAL OFFENSE.

Blondine—Doesn't Chester Bullion get on your nerves when you dance with him?

Brunette—Yes, but I could forgive him if he would keep off my feet.

HIS PREFERENCE.

Rankin (in art gallery)—Do you like still life?

Phyle—Not particularly; I'll take the movies for mine.—Youngtown Telegram.

THE REASON.

"Your friend has such a winning personality."

"Yes; that is the reason you don't want to play poker with him often."

LOPSIDED FLIGHT.

Aide (riding furiously up)—General, the enemy has captured our left wing. What shall we do?

General—Fly with the other.

A BIG GUN.

"He seems to be a big gun in this community."

"Yep. He's about the only 42-caliber the town has."

NATURAL PERFORMANCE.

"That widower seems all broken down."

"Then why doesn't he get repaired?"

Speechless For Thanks.

Mena, Ark.—"I find Cardui to be all you represent," writes Mrs. H. B.
York, of this city. "I suffered from womanly ailments, for nearly two years, before I tried Cardui. I have been so relieved since taking it. I cannot say enough in its praise. It has done me a world of good, and I recommend Cardui to all women." Cardui is over 50 years old, and the demand is greater today than ever. Cardui is the standard, tonic medicine, for women of every age. Would you like to be well and strong? Then take Cardui. Its record shows that it will pay you. Begin today. Why wait? Advertisement.

GOOD WORD FOR FRECKLES

One Thing That is Certain, They Cannot Be Produced by Artificial Means.

It is high time that somebody spoke up in behalf of the freckle.
The daffodil of the complexion has been gibed at and abused until it has lost its standing as a thing of beauty.
Young girls smother in powder this wild flower the sun has placed upon their cheeks. Married women apply lotions to cause it to fade into pallor.
And only the other day a widow died from an operation which would scientifically have plucked "the joyous company" from its ordained meadow.

We cannot all be blonds. And by the same token all our complexions cannot be rose gardens. If the fates have strewn daffodils upon your face, be not ashamed, even if you do nothing to encourage their growth.
Rather be you proud that sun and wind have given you something mi-lady's bonheur has despaired of imitating. For you never saw an artificial freckle. But as to the roses that bloom in milady's cheeks—ah, well! all is not rose that is red or pink.
And many is the rose that's true, that is also a hectic bloom, the symbol of a latent disease. But there never flourished a freckle that did not bespeak health.

So, if you have freckles, exult in them. They are true and they are healthy. And they prove at least that you have had "a place in the sun."—Cincinnati Times-Star.

Question of Property Rights in the Wilderness Has Not Been Definitely Decided.

The Gross-Glockner, the highest peak in the Tauern mountains of Austria, has been purchased for a private estate by Herr Wieler of Bochum. The mountain climbers of Germany, Austria and Switzerland are a good deal exercised about it, for the peak, which is 12,455 feet in height, has been a favorite one.
There are a number of paths to the top, and the German-Austrian Alpine club has placed an iron cross on its summit.

Club chalets and huts have been established high up on all sides of the mountain, and some of the paths require wire ropes and iron steps in the rocks to make them practicable. The view from the top is remarkable; it takes in a vast sweep of the country from Ratisbon, on the Bavarian plains, to the Adriatic sea.
Mr. Wieler has offered to the alpine clubs the equivalent value elsewhere for their paths and property, but that offer they declined. Thus there is raised for the first time the question of property rights in the wilderness. Alps, and mountaineers will watch the outcome with interest.—Youth's Companion.

HUH!

"A woman's curiosity is always getting her into trouble," growled Mr. Gabb. "Lot's wife rubbed around and turned into a pillar of salt."

"Is that so?" replied Mrs. Gabb.
"Well, a man's curiosity gets him into more trouble than that. A man will rub around and then turn into a saloon."

A RARE SORT.

"They are a model married couple."

"I presume they never quarrel?"

"Oh, yes. They do that."

"Then, why do you consider them worth emulating?"

"They have decided that they won't buy an automobile until they can afford it."

DODGING AN ISSUE.

"Do you know where I can buy counterfeit money?" inquired the man with a suit case.

"Are you looking for trouble?"

"No. But I'm against the tipping evil and at the same time I want to go through the formalities and avoid being made uncomfortable by the waiters."

THERE'S A REASON.

"I hear that your father speaks very highly of me," he remarked.

"Yes," she replied, "he does that to aggravate mother."

THE WAY OF IT.

She—Women can fight as well as men.

He—I know they can, if it comes to the scratch.

3-IN-ONE OILS
CLEANS, POLISHES,
PREVENTS RUST

3-in-One is a light, pure oil compound that never gums. 3-in-One lubricates perfectly sewing machines, typewriters, bicycles, clocks, guns, lawnmowers—everything that ever needs oiling in your home or office. No grease. No acid. A little 3-in-One on a soft cloth cleans and polishes perfectly all veneered or varnished furniture and woodwork.
Sprinkled on a yard of black cheesecloth it makes an ideal Dustless Dusting Cloth.
3-in-One absolutely prevents rust on gun barrels, rifle fixtures, bath room fixtures, gas ranges, everything metal, indoors or out, in any climate. It seeps into the unseen metal pores and forms a protecting "overcoat" which stays on.
